No. 41-43 St. Clair Street
At Bridge.
Frankfort, Kentucky.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Mrs. James Flynn, aged 25, an employee of the Kentucky River Mills, living on North Wilkinson street, shortly after her return from the mills, on Monday evening, took a dose of carbolic acid, from the effects of which she died about 4 o'clock, on Tuesday morning.

Domestic troubles caused the tragedy.

Surgeons rendered all assistance possible, but in vain.

BUYS A HANDSOME LOT.

Dr. J. A. Posey has purchased from the Berry estate a handsome lot on Second street, between Main and Logan, and will soon begin the erection of a cozy home.

TUESDAY'S ALARM.

An alarm from box 21 called the department to the Kentucky Journal office, on Ann street, at 4:30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. Smoke was issuing from the wall where a burning flue was situated. No damage.

Dr. Weaver's Syrup and Cerote.
Successful treatment for blood and skin diseases.

THANKS.

Mr. George Penn has placed us under obligation for a bottle of wine made from wild grapes by himself, when he resided in Texas, some ten or twelve years ago. Mr. Penn made a barrel of this wine and sent it to his father before his death. It is used alone for medicinal purposes, and has been very helpful.

We desire to return our sincere thanks to him.

THANKS.

Our old friend and schoolmate, Mr. Alex. W. Macklin, who is now in Florida, has placed us under obligations for a copy of recent Florida papers. They are filled with accounts of the prosperity of the flower State.

We are glad to know that our friend is enjoying his stay there. He will please accept our thanks for his consideration.

A wheelman's tool bag isn't complete without a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Heals cuts, bruises, stings, sprains. Monarch over pain.

STAMPING GROUND

We regret to learn that the venerable "Squire" J. S. Lindsay is in a hopeless condition, his death being hourly looked for.

Mr. D. C. Robinson's flock of sheep were raided by dogs, on Saturday night, and fifteen killed and a number more maimed.

Mr. Ollie McFarland, a near neighbor of Mr. Robinson, was similarly damaged the same night. And yet we are told there is no necessity for a dog law.

Owing to the heavy and continued rains, farming operations are greatly delayed. But few tobacco beds have been burned as yet.

The Democratic candidates for the nomination for circuit judge, before the primary of April 5th, have been circulating in our neighborhood lately.

Died—At the residence of his niece, Mrs. G. B. Robinson, Jr., Mr. John T. Johnson, of consumption, aged 70 years. Mr. Johnson was a quiet, unassuming gentleman and good citizen. He served in Col. D. Howard Smith's Regiment of the Confederate Army. The funeral took place Wednesday, and the remains were buried in the Georgetown Cemetery.

UNO.

BEHIND THE BARS.

James Hargis, A. H. Hargis, Elbert Hargis and Edward Callahan, indicted for conspiring to assassinate James Cockrell, town marshal of Jackson, have at last been placed behind the bars of the Fayette county jail, to await trial under the indictments.

A motion to allow bail in each case will be argued before Circuit Judge Parker, in Lexington, on Monday.

CLOSE CALL.

Mr. B. F. Morrison, of this city, went to Flat Creek, on Friday, on business, and attempted to wash the mud off of his buggy by driving into that stream just above the Harvieland bridge, forgetting the deep water hole at that place.

The timely arrival of other gentlemen saved both him and his buggy from destruction.

Women love a clear complexion. Pure blood makes it. Burdock Blood Bitters makes pure blood.

MAGISTRATE EDWARDS DEAD.

Magistrate J. W. Edwards, of Breathitt county, who so assiduously attempted to aid the Harvies in evading a trial in Fayette county, died on Tuesday last, at his home in Breathitt county.

Dr. Weaver's Syrup
PURSES the blood; Cerote (ointment) for the skin.

THANKS.

LOCKKEEPER'S HOUSE DAMAGED.

The big rise in the river caused the bank under the lockkeeper's house, at lock No. 10, to cave in and the house came near being carried away.

Luckily the government employees succeeded in placing cables around it and saving it.

The lock was considerably damaged by water washing out a retaining wall.

Every family should have its household medicine chest, and the first bottle in it should be Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, nature's remedy for coughs and colds.

SMALL BLAZE TUESDAY NIGHT.

An alarm from box 24, at 8:50 p.m., on Tuesday night, called the fire boys to a small frame house on High street, beyond Mero, where an ugly blaze had been started by some incendiary, who had poured coal oil on waste rags and set fire to them. The damage was not large, as the house was unoccupied.

GENERAL DEPUTY COLLECTOR C. O. REYNOLDS HURT.

When alighting from a street car, in Louisville, several days ago, Mr. Chas. O. Reynolds, the well known General Deputy Collector in the Internal Revenue Service, was struck by another car, going in the opposite direction, and severely hurt.

His friends here will be glad to know that he is recovering rapidly from his injuries.

GOT OFF CHEAP.

He may well think so, he has got off cheap, who, after having contracted constipation or indigestion, is still able to perfectly restore his health. Nothing will do this but Dr. King's New Life Pills. A quick, pleasant, and certain cure for headache, constipation, etc. 25c at all druggists; guaranteed.

FIRST SHOWING

—OF—

LADIES' SPRING OXFORDS

THIS is going to be an Oxford season—instead of boots the lady of fashion will wear this spring a pair of welted sole Oxfords and a pair of uppers to protect the ankles. We are ready with the latest styles in

Laird, Schober & Co.'s

—AND—

Queen Quality

OXFORDS. Patent leather, gun metal and tan Russia calf, are the prevailing leathers, while the pump and two eyelet Gibson blucher are the smartest of the new styles. Then there is a variety of styles here hardly equalled by the larger city stores. Look at them as shown in our show window. You will find there an exhibition of what's what in new spring footwear, such as can only be seen at McClure's, in this section of the country.

Laird, Schober & Co.'s Oxfords, $5.00.

Queen Quality Oxfords, $2.50 and $3.00.

R. K. MCCLURE & SON

FELL TO HIS DEATH.

The sad news was received in this city, on Tuesday, of the accidental death in Cincinnati, Ohio, of Mr. Pat. M. Collins, a brother-in-law of Mr. C. E. Collins, of this city.

Mr. Collins formerly lived here and served on the police force under Mayor Mangan.

It seems that he was superintending some iron work on a big building for Grainger & Co., in Cincinnati, and in attempting to get out of the way of a piece of timber that had slipped out of place, and at the same time avoiding an iron beam, he stepped between the joists and fell breaking his neck.

Mr. Collins leaves a wife, two sons and a large circle of friends to mourn his untimely end.

Later — The remains were brought to this city and interred in our cemetery after funeral services at the Church of the Good Shepherd on Thursday morning, conducted by Rev. Father T. S. Major.

New line of Spring Millinery goods just received at Elite Millinery Store. Call and inspect styles before purchasing. You will be pleased. Satisfaction guaranteed. Mrs. Anna Brown, trimmer, at 188 St. Clair Street. It.

BUYS HANDSOME LOT.

Miss Eliza Overton has purchased from the Berry estate a handsome lot on Second street, between Main and Logan, next to that recently purchased by Dr. J. A. Posey, and will erect a neat residence upon the same in the near future.

BOUGHT A HOME.

Mr. T. W. Shackleford, of Sa-fell, has purchased the cottage home of Mr. W. E. Baker, on St.
Clair street, and will soon come to the city to reside.

A MOVE ARIGHT.

The ladies of the Civic League has caused galvanized iron receptacles for paper trash to be placed on our streets, and it is earnestly hoped that our citizens will see to it that they are properly used.

Keep the streets clean.

"ITS WELCOME VOICE."

At 6 o'clock, on Tuesday evening, the old town clock gave voice once more, and its sound was a welcome one to those of us who had heard it so long in the days gone by, and who had felt so lone-some since it had ceased to mark the passing hours.

CLIMATIC CURES.

The influence of climatic conditions on cure of consumption is very much overestimated. The poor patient, and the rich patient too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expiration in the morning is a certain cure for German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and death to the consumptive, can be prevented by stopping the taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives few who are benefited and regain strength are those that use German Syrup. Trial bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all drug-gists.

ATTACKED BY A MOB

And beaten, in a labor riot, until covered with sores, a Chicago street car conductor applies Buckle's Arnica Salve, and was soon sound and well. "I use it in my family," writes G. J. Welch, of Tekonsha, Mich., "and find it perfect." Simply great for cuts and burns. Only 25¢ at all druggists.

AN OLD-FASHIONED REMEDY.

Owing to the prevalence of pneumonia and the great mortality which attend this "dreaded disease, boards of health in different communities in the older States of the Union are advocating the following remedy for the ailment: Take six to ten onions according to size and chop fine. Put in a large frying pan over a hot fire, then add to same quantity of rye meal and vinegar enough to make a thick paste.

In the meanwhile stir it thoroughly, letting it simmer five or ten minutes. Then put in a cotton bag large enough to cover the lungs and apply to the chest as hot as the patient can bear. In about ten minutes change the poultices, and in a few hours the patient will be out of danger. This remedy is said to have been formulated many years ago by a New England physician who never lost a patient by the disease. It seems to us that the remedy is worth trying in an emergency or until a physician arrives, and we give it for what it is worth.

NEW WAY OF RAISING TOBACCO.

"And to think that ten months ago I looked like this! I owe it to German Syrup."

"The time-worn injunction, 'Never put off 'till tomorrow what you can do today,' is generally, perhaps, in this form: 'Do it to-day!' That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. There is no more reliable remedy for it TO-DAY—and let that remedy be Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will cure your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. Now, mark how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs. German Syrup will surely effect a cure as it has done before in thousands of cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles 25¢; regular size, 75¢. At all druggists."

Like a Comet

This

famous remedy does for the stomach what the white oil does for the skin. It is unique in doing for itself, even if but slightly disordered or overburdened.

Kodol

supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles and membranes of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. It cures indigestion, flatulence, palpitation of the heart, nervous dyspepsia and all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying and strengthening the glands, membranes of the stomach and digestive organs.

TO OUR PATRONS.

Some weeks ago we sent notices to those of our patrons who were in arrears for the Roundabout, as to the amount, and requesting settlement. We are glad to say that quite a large number of them have responded.

To those who are still in arrears we wish to give notice that we shall be compelled to stop their papers in the near future if they do not settle. Kindly bear this in mind and square up.

THE ROUNDABOUT'S DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY, EDUCATION, LITERATURE.

A Bit of History.

In reading over the history of my father's memories of Kentucky, this one event seemed particularly appropriate at this time, and I give the "romance" to the younger students who may wish to become conversant with this data in politics.

If I remember correctly, it was the year 1824 that General Jackson and President Monroe came to Georgetown, Ky., on their excursion trip through the State.

The citizens of Georgetown made every arrangement for their reception, and the military company and Light Horse Company were out in full parade. I think John T. Johnson delivered the welcome address. I thought Johnson in his reply to Johnson was the roughest man in his speech I ever heard, and I was bold enough to criticize what he said.

"There were thousands of people in town that day. Monroe did not make any speech. The military spirit was in high favor with the people then. John Lemon,

"SAVED MY LIFE"

—That's what a prominent druggist said of Scott's Emulsion a short time ago. As a rule we don't use or refer to testimonials in addressing the public, but the above remark and similar expressions are made so often in connection with Scott's Emulsion that they are worthy of occasional note. From infancy to old age Scott's Emulsion offers a reliable means of remedying improper and weak development, restoring lost flesh and vitality, and repairing waste. The action of Scott's Emulsion is no more of a secret than the composition of the Emulsion itself. What it does it does through nourishment—the kind of nourishment that cannot be obtained in ordinary food. No system is too weak or delicate to retain Scott's Emulsion and gather good from it.

We will send you a sample free.

Be sure that this picture is in the form of a label on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

Heart Trouble Baffled Doctors.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine Cured Me.

There is nothing more necessary to health than sleep and rest. If these are denied you, if you rise in the morning tired, if your heart is not strong, there is an absence of the nerves plainly present. If your heart is weak, or there is an inherited tendency in that direction, you will find it difficult to affect your heart's action as to bring on serious, chronic trouble. Dr. Miles' Nervine is a nervous tonic, which quiets the nerves, so that sleep may come, and when it comes, stored up in the nerves to health and strength. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is a great blood purifier, which regulates the action of the heart, thickens the blood and improves the circulation.

"Some time ago I was suffering severely with heart trouble. At times my heart would seem to stop beating and at other times it would beat very fast. Three to four hours sleep each night in ten months was all I could get. One week in last September I received a bottle of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Heart Cure at a drugstore in Lawrenceburg, after spending $300.00 in medicines and doctors at Louisville, Lexington, and in three days had derived much benefit from the use of your remedies that I got from the doctor and their medicines. That even caused me to take some of the marvelous power contained in your remedies." W. H. HUGHES, Fox Creek, Ky.

who commanded the cavalry, had a large company. A number of the horses had done service in the last war. The horse that Capt. Lemon rode had charged Proctor at the battle of the Thames. He was a fine animal, and his owner took great care of him, and in the sham battles he would always go through the lines.

"This was a real Jackson day in Georgetown!

"Bro. Sam and me was a fishing on the other side of Elkhorn in sight of the Georgetown and Frankfort turnpike. We were just pulling out the fish fast when we heard the stage from Frankfort coming. (I tell you the stage coach was looked upon at that time with much more interest than the railway car at the present time. Every few miles the driver would blow his bugle, and some of the drivers could blow them fine, for they had more pride in their fine coaches and fine teams than the carriers do nowadays.)

"As he came down the road from Captain Craig's to Elkhorn, he played Washington's March, and when he stopped in front of the store he told the news of Gen. LaFayette's arrival in Frankfort. Of course we quit our fishing and ran to tell the wonderful piece of news to our friends and relatives. France gave to the United States a hero of tenderest memory, and one for whom all American patriots should feel the deepest sense of reverence, for the Marquis LaFayette, while yet in the flush of his young manhood, offered himself upon our country's altar for its weal or woe. History tells us that he was born of noble parentage, and the name one of ancient French aristocracy. He was the friend of kings and a favorite at the French and English courts. He married young and his still younger bride was the daughter of one of the proudest houses in France, one among the charmed circle around beautiful, but sad-faced Marie Antoinette.

"LaFayette came to America from impulse and the spark of his inspiration burned brighter because of the friendship and encouragement given him by the brother of King George III, of England, the Duke of Gloucester, the member of the royal family who posed as the friend of liberty, and in that role opposed the English Colonial policy, approving the cause of the Americans.

"He became the comrade in arms of our own beloved Washington and a laureled hero of Brandywine and Yorktown.

"During the second administration of President James Monroe, 1824, occurred Gen. LaFayette's visit to our country as the guest of the nation. He traveled through each of the twenty-four States, and was every where welcomed with delight.

"He landed in New York in June, 1824, upon the invitation of President Monroe, who was a dear, personal friend, and was received with every manifestation of rejoicing, and in every part of the country with the warmest expressions of delight and enthusiasm, being proclaimed by popular voice: As the the noble guest of the nation. Everywhere his presence was the signal for festivities and great bonfires.

"Having celebrated at Bunker Hill, the anniversary of the first conflict of the Revolution, and at Yorktown that of its closing scenes in which he himself had become so conspicuous a part, and taking leave of four ex-Presidents of the United States, he received the farewell of the President, in the name of the nation, and sailed from the Capitol, in a frigate named the Brandywine, September 7, 1825.

"I have been thus particular in speaking of this illustrious gentleman because no man before, and no other man in all time, will have such exhibitions of love and attention paid to him.

"Here I pause to state that mud roads prevailed in Kentucky, and this present month of May the roads were well nigh impassable on account of two weeks of rain. Gen. LaFayette left Frankfort in a splendid coach, drawn by six fine horses, and the Governor and two other gentlemen accompanied him. The roads being so muddy, they failed to reach their destination that night and stopped within four miles of Lexington. The next day he was received in Lexington as no other man was ever welcomed. The road from Georgetown to Lexington was lined with people from all parts of the State.

"You remember the present cemetery gate on the hill at Georgetown? On both sides of the road there was a strong stake and rider worm fence, and I was opposite that gate on top of the fence when the grand party came along. He was in an open barouche with his hat off bowing to either side of the road which was alive with men, women, and children, negroes and horses, and such shouts, with the roar of musket and cannon, old Georgetown will never again witness. And now comes in the little romance of your papa.

"Your dear mother had been my one sweetheart, but would never encourage my heart by word or action. She was well grown for her age, fourteen years, so full of fun and happiness, with dimpled, rosy cheek and sparkling eyes. A born leader among the girls, ready for foot races or bandy, and up in arms to fight, if occasion demanded it.

"In the parade of welcome there were fifty girls, dressed in white, with wreaths of flowers. They rode in open carriages to meet the royal guest. Your mother got the plate out of which the General ate, also winning, at a chance, one bushel of ginger cakes which she distributed among her friends. One boy tried to steal her plate and cakes, but she pitched him into him with doubled fist and ran off mid great shouts of laughter. So much of the romance in the life history of the beloved French general touched with mine that his influence has swept forever across my earthy destiny. Your dear mother this day promised to marry me, some time, and kept me waiting eight long years. But she made me happy at last, and for this blessing I give in memoriam this brief sketch of Washington's friend and the guest of Kentucky, the immortal Gen. LaFayette."

THE WEATHER PROPHET.

When the summer's sun begins to get coquettish with his rays, When the morning's shivering chill is on the evening's warm rays, When in early morn, the frost begins to be, this is the beginning of the days.

When you love to spread your hand o'er the hearthstone's blaze.

When the night's early approach encroaches each day, the sun's light;

When the black birds begin to congregate, with not a silent note, in the air.

When the wild geese's "Honk," is heard in the darkness of the night;

While winging their way to the balmy waters of the South.

Then is the time he prophetically ennumbers the land,

They spring up like mushrooms in the early damp days of spring,

In mud and earth, as they're the Prophet Bell's fall command,

And if you'll keep tab on them, will find just as false, what they sing.

Anatomist.

Here's the one with goose bone, free from spots, entirely clear and bright.

'Twas taken from the downy breast of goose, that but one summer had seen,

"Don't you clearly see, that we'll be favored with sun's balmy light?"

And all winter long, you'll be blessed with sight of landscape green."

Hayseed.

"We are going to have a fine winter, no snow, not by a long sight;

I've never seen it fail, you'll see its so, sure as you are born,

And you can carry on the work of summer time, it'll be so warm and bright.

Why? because! don't you know, the shock is light on the corn."

Woodman.

"Winter! No! It'll be the mildest for years, I'll tell you how I know;

What's going to be tough, nature for the dwellers of the woods does prepare!"

Recollect what I tell you now, or I'll always need it so, It's always mild when the hickory, oak, beech and grapevine don't bear."

Naturalist.

"When the ground hog is out good weather will be near, you know, But when you can't see him, there will be plenty ice and snow;

If he should, by any chance, see his shadow on ground hog day,

Back into his den goes he, for another long six weeks stay."

Traditionalist.

"Oh pshaw: these fellows don't know a thing, when it they see, Just watch it now, will you, and see what will be,

Just you watch, of all December's days, the first three,

As they are, clear or cloudy, so the winter months will be."

Oh! ye perjured tribe, year by year, why will ye let you fool us so,

When we know that nine times out of ten, you've done it before?

Let you cause us into dreams of a sunny land, without ice or snow,

And awaken to hear the wind

From Greenland icy mountains' tapping at the door."

You purblind set, that this disappointment, the people ye heap

With your goose-bone, light shuck on corn, no mark on ground hog too,

If you had what was due you, you'd be taken to brook Kishon,

And done unto, as Elijah of old,

unto those of Baal did do.

"DO IT TO-DAY."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'till to-morrow" is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" What is this service we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it, and let that remedy be Dr. Boesch's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve you of cold or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you of hacking cough. If you have seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. COLORADO'S SHAME.

The Legislature of Colorado, on Thursday, ousted Gov. Alva Adams, who had been declared elected on the face of the returns, and seated Gov. Peabody. It is said this was done with an understanding that Peabody should at once resign and let the Lieutenant-Governor, McDonald, take the position. We have no patience with political rascality, in whatever party formed. If Adams was legally elected, he was entitled to the place. If Peabody, on the contrary, was ejected, he was justly entitled to h' d it.

The whole scheme looks to us just like the election steal in Kentucky five years ago.

We can not and will not sanction such things in any party.

Honesty in all things—political as well as personal—should be our motto.

BARACA CLASS BANQUET.

The banquet given by the Young Men's Baraca Class of the First Baptist Church to the men of that church and congregation, on Thursday night, was a delightful success. There was a large, intelligent and enthusiastic crowd present. The addresses delivered were earnest, eloquent and appropriate—well calculated to draw the men of the church closer together, and to promote, generally, the cause of the Master whom they are endeavoring to serve.

We desire to commend, in the warmest terms, this effort to increase the social element in religious matters, which are so largely used in worldly affairs. To make the young men, especially, of a church feel that there is an "open door" to them, for all useful and helpful purposes, should meet the unqualified approval of all those who are taught to be "wise as serpents, and as harmless as doves," "being all things to all men, if so be they might win some."

If Christian people would make their churches attractive and pleasant to men (the young especially) there would be less attraction in the saloons and places of vice generally.

We give below the program of the exercises of the banquet:

Program.

1. THE MAKERS OF THE FUTURE NOW IN OUR BIBLE SCHOOLS.

Dr. U. V. Williams, Superintendent of the Bible School.

"I hold that the true age of wisdom is when we are boys and girls, and not women and men. When as credulous children we know things because we believe them—however untrue the laws."
James Whitecomb Riley.

—The Earl of Chatham.

2. "THE POWER BEHIND THE THRONE."

Rev. J. F. Williams, D. D., Versailles, Ky.

"Something behind the throne greater than the king himself."
—The Earl of Chatham.

3. "THE LORDS OF CREATION, WHOM YOUR LADIES RULE."

Dr. J. W. Hill, President of the Young Men's Baraca Bible Class.

"Learn the brief moral of our evening's play:
Man has his will but woman has her way."
Oliver Wendell Holmes.

4. THE SELF MADE MAN, HIS OPPORTUNITIES.

Prof. J. H. Fuqua, Superintendent of Public Instruction.

"Your self-made man, whittled into shape with his own jack knife, deserves more credit, if that is all, than the regular engine turned article."
Oliver Wendell Holmes.

5. THE DAWN OF A BETTER DAY FOR THE MEN OF FRANKFORT, FIGHTING IN THE FRONT RANKS FOR KING JESUS.

Rev. William Crowe, Pastor of the Southern Presbyterian Church.

"Then sprang the happier day from underground."
—Tennyson.

GOOD WORK

Done Daily in Frankfort. Many Citizens Tell of It.

Nearly every reader has heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. Their good work in Frankfort still continues and our citizens are constantly adding endorsement by public testimony. No better proof of merit can be had than the experience of friends and neighbors. Read this case:

W. T. Frazier, proprietor of Frazier's Candy Kitchen, 8 St. Clair St., residing at No. 5 Second St., says: "The efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills was amply proven in my case. I suffered from backache a great deal, often so severely that I could not turn in bed. In the morning when I got up, it was a common thing to feel lame and sore in the back. Being on my feet so much of the time in my store no doubt tended to aggravate the trouble. Anxious to find some relief and a permanent cure if possible, when I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills, and saw them so highly recommended by people living near by, I went to J. W. Gayle's drug store and got a box. It was a glad surprise to me to find that after taking them for a day or two they were removing the pain. I continued the treatment, and by the time I had finished the box, the trouble was entirely removed. Up to date, I have felt no recurrence. It is a pleasure to me to endorse this preparation."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Melburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Finding health is like finding money—so think those who are sick. When you have a cough, cold, sore throat, or chest irritation, better act promptly like W. C. Barber, of Sandy Level, Va. He says: "I had a terrible chest trouble, caused by smoke and coal dust on my lungs; but, after finding no relief in other remedies, I was cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds." Greatest sale of any cough or lung medicine in the world. At all drugstores; 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

"THE SHO-GUN."

George Ade's Great Korean Comic Opera Success Comes To Capital Theatre Monday, March 20, for One Performance Only.

Mr. W. Henry Savage will offer for one performance at the Capital Theatre, commencing the latest and one of the most successful comic operas he has yet produced, "The Sho-Gun," fresh from an engagement of six months at Wallack's Theatre, New York. "The Sho-Gun" is the first joint work of George Ade and Gustave Luders, and it is said to be one of the most pretentious musical offerings the American stage has known in a decade past. The very best work Mr. Ade has yet done is to be found in "The Sho-Gun," and certainly Mr. Luders has not written anything in recent years which has the pretension this latest score of his possesses. The bringing together of these two capable writers in collaboration was in itself a feat, but Mr. Savage accomplished it successfully and the result is one of the most delightful offerings of years.

The book and the lyrics of "The Sho-Gun" are written in Mr. Ade's best vein. As most all the playgoers are familiar with this it is safe to assume that there is real worth so far as the literary end of the production is concerned. "Adeisms" has been known since this writer first began his "Fables in Slang" and the work he has done for the stage in the past five years demonstrates that his pen has lost none of its facile cunning and pointedness.

Gustave Luders has written some of the most meritorious music of any American composer. His "King Dodo," "Prince of Pillen" and "Woodland" scores them with brilliant passages and the score he has provided for Mr. Ade's book and lyrics is quite the most tuneful of all. Mr. Luders has solved the problem of writing musically scores and at the same time keeping well in mind the fact that the patrons of the present day comic opera are anxious that while the music be pretentious, it must in addition be of the same "whistleable" variety and "The Sho-Gun" has its full quota of "whistleable" numbers. The most popular of all the musical numbers are "Your Honey-Moon Will Last," "Scheming," "The Irrepressible Yank," "Flutter Little Birdie," "I Am Yours Truly," "The Sho-Gun of Ka-Choo," and others. The ensembles are perfect, due perhaps to the fact that the choruses while one of the prettiest on tour is also one of the best singing choruses ever organized.

The production is staged in the usual manner so common with Mr. Savage and every care has been exercised to retain the Oriental atmosphere so essential to the success of a production of this sort, many of the property effects having been brought from Korea especially for the production.

Briefly the story of the opera concerns the adventures of a wealthy American in the island of Ka-Choo located in the sea of Japan. He goes there with his breezy western manners searching for a line of ancestors and in a short time so upsets the rules, usages, customs of the country, unincorning everything which is open to unincorning making himself a dominant figure in all the business of the kingdom and so effectually does he carry all before him that he becomes the Sho-Gun himself.

The title role of the opera is in the keeping of John E. Henshaw, well known as a comic opera comedian and he has scored one of his strongest successes in it. Others in the cast will include Christie Mac Donald, Wm. G. Weeden, Agnes Caine Brown, Thomas C. Leary, Edward B. Martindell, Harold Taylor, E. P. Parsons and others.

LOGS AND DRIFT.

All day Saturday and Sunday vast quantities of logs, ties and drift wood were passing this city, and quite a number of our citizens made quite a good thing by catching the same.

BEN-HUR.

Again to be Staged in Louisville.

The Klaw & Erlanger Co. have, in their time, made many notable productions and thereby earned for themselves an enviable reputation. The most ambitious effort of their career is "Ben-Hur," which scored a brilliant success in Louisville three seasons ago, and which is booked for another engagement there at Macauley's Theatre the week of March 20th, with special Wednesday and Saturday matinees.

The scenic equipment to be used in the staging in Louisville this season is the same that created such a furore in London three years ago, when "Ben-Hur" was introduced to the English public in the Drury Lane Theatre. These effects were also a part of the presentation of the play during the World's Fair run at the Olympic Theatre, St. Louis, the past summer, and are now being used at the Big Auditorium Theatre, Chicago. No play that has ever been produced within the four walls of a theatre has scored a success that could in any way be compared to this impressive and fascinating romance. Although dealing with the most delicate subject in the history of the stage, its freedom from anything that might grate upon the nerves of the most religiously sensitive, has earned the endorsement of the very best people in every community.

To describe "Ben-Hur," reference should be made to it as a series of the most magnificent pictures illustrating the times of the Messiah on earth. Conspicuous scenes in the enactment are "the Star of Bethlehem," "the City of Jerusalem, from the terrace garden of the Palace of Her in Judea," "the interior of a Roman galley," "the Grove of Daphne," "the Fountain of Castalia," "the realistic Roman chariot race in which eight horses struggle for supremacy," "the Vale of Hin-nom," and "the Mount of Olives." All are remarkable exhibits of the best scenic art. To these are added some wonderful effects in electric lighting, as in "the Star of Bethlehem," where over 25,000 electric lights of 32 candle power are used to furnish its powerful ray.

The advance sale of seats opened Thursday morning, March 16, at 9 o'clock. Manager Macauley, of Macauley's Theatre, announces that all out-of-town orders, if accompanied by cash or money order, will be filled before the regular box office sale opens. This is for the accommodation of suburban patrons as reduced rates are announced on all railroads and a large attendance is expected from miles around.

CHANGE OF FIRM.

Dr. J. W. Gayle announces that he has sold an interest in his Main street store, which has been run under the firm name of Gayle & Co., to Mr. Bernard Ebner, and the style of the new firm will be Ebner & Co.

Mr. Ebner is an accomplished pharmacist and has been with Dr. Gayle for some time.

READ, REFLECT AND ACT.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Messrs. L. B. Marshall & Co. offering the handsome "Point Breeze" (Rodman place) for sale. It makes an ideal suburban home, and is a valuable piece of property.

ARE YOU ENGAGED?

Engaged people should remember that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided, by keeping their digestions in good condition with Electric Bitters. S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor, and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy. All druggists sell and guarantee them, at 50¢ a bottle.
